Hospital District Wins One More Round In Court Battle

The Hamlin Hospital District has been given a favorable ruling by the 11th Court of Civil Appeals in Eastland involving a lawsuit filed by a group of Jones County taxpayers.

In February, 104th District Court Judge J. Neil Daniel ruled in favor of the hospital district, overruling a jury verdict which had favored the taxpayers. At the same time Judge Daniel entered a judgement in favor of the Stamford Hospital District which was involved in a similar suit.

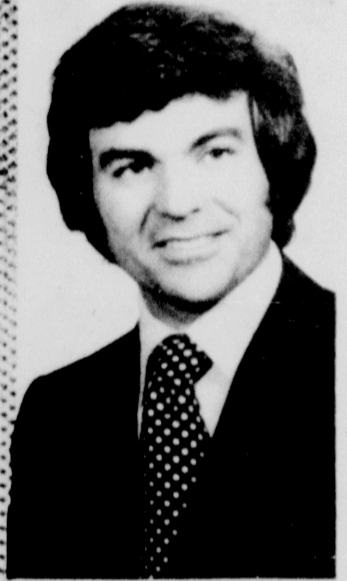

John Watts, a partner in the local law firm of Willingham and Watts, attorneys for the Hamlin Hospital District, said that naturally the district was quite pleased with the Court of Civil Appeals decision in the case.

Frank Scarborough of Abilene, attorney for the taxpayers in the Southern part of Jones County who filed the suit, said Friday that he hadn't had a chance to study the Eastland court's opinion or to discuss it with his clients. But he said he will "probably file a motion for a rehearing and pursue the appeal."

Shaving Permits Now On Sale

Shaving Permits went on sale here Monday for those who failed to grow a beard for the Fourth of July Community Bicentennial Celebration Sunday. The permits are $1.00.

Those who have not grown a beard or mustache and do not have a shaving permit are subject to being arrested and jailed.

TO SPEAK SUNDAY — Edward O. Daniel of Brownwood will be the speaker for the Community Church Service to be held Sunday evening as part of the Bicentennial Celebration in Piper Stadium. He is the former associate director of the Douglas MacArthur Academy of Freedom at Howard Payne University.

Little League To Sell Food, Drinks Sunday

The Hamlin Little League will have a concession stand during the July 4th celebration Sunday afternoon.

Sandwiches, brownies, drinks, ice cream and candy will be sold, according to Mrs. Sam Mack Hodges, who is working with Mrs. Stella Payne, League president, in making arrangements.

Recreation Program to Close Friday With Parade

The Hamlin Summer Recreation Program will close Friday with a Bicentennial Parade at 10 a.m. The parade will start at the Church of Christ parking lot and will end at South Central and Southwest Fifth.

The Recreation program is sponsored by the Hamlin Board of Community Development and is funded by The United Way.

The opinion issued last Thursday in the 11th Court of Civil Appeals stated that, "defendants argue the court properly entered judgment notwithstanding the verdict because the determination of the boundaries in the instant case is a 'political question' solely with the power, prerogative and discretion of the legislature and is not justiciable under the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. We agree."

The ruling signed by Austin McCloud, chief justice of the 11th Civil Appeals Court said, "We have considered all of the plaintiffs' points and they are all overruled. The judgment of the trial court is affirmed."

Plaintiffs in the suit were C. E. Carter, Leon Kelso, Frank Carter, Henry Ueckert, Darwin Hill and Carl Jackson. They sued the Hamlin Hospital District and its board of directors, plus the state attorney general.

HAMLIN'S BICENTENNIAL MURAL—A 4' x 16' mural in oil, painted by members of the Hamlin Art Club, has been placed in Farmers and Merchants National Bank. The mural, a "Tribute to the Past" and "Salute to the Future" was placed Tuesday. From left are Mrs. Robert Fowler, general Bicentennial chairman for Hamlin; Mrs. Robert Goodgame, Art Club president; and Roy B. Hennington, Art Club member and chairman of the mural project, who also framed the huge mural.

Residents Urged to Curtail Water Use

Mayor Robert Fowler urged Hamlin residents to curtail watering of lawns and other extra uses of water for a limited time. In issuing the request Tuesday Mayor Fowler said that the record consumption of water by both Stamford and Hamlin residents was more than the pumping facilities would handle.

He said that we need a break in the water consumption to allow the pumps to catch back up.

Mayor Fowler said that there is no shortage of water in Lake Stamford but our present consumption is just greater than our facilities can handle.

He urged those who felt that they needed to continue to water to save their lawns to do their watering in the evenings and at night.

Bid Opening Moved Up On Apartment Complex

Pierce, Pace and Associates of Midland, architects for the recently approved 14-unit apartment complex here, has announced a change in the date for opening of bids for the construction of the projects. The bids will be opened Thursday, July 15, instead of Tuesday, July 22, as previously scheduled.

The Farmers Home Administration has approved a loan for nearly $207,000 for the construction of units.

Plans call for four one-bedroom apartments and 10 two-bedroom apartments. The four one-bedroom apartments and three two-bedroom apartments will be located behind the Post Office building and the other seven units will be located on Avenue F just North of Holiday Lodge.

The units will be constructed and operated by the Hamlin Housing Authority and will be for people with moderate incomes.

Little League All-Stars to Be Named Friday

FOR BICENTENNIAL—

Bicentennial Park Project Beginning to Take Shape

Hamlin's Bicentennial Project in the horizons division, related to the future, is beginning to take shape at the south edge of the city, thanks to the efforts of many Hamlin residents and even visitors.

People with varied talents and interests have joined together to change an unsightly entrance into the city into a proposed roadside park. Teenagers, retired people, professional people, homemakers, representatives of all ethnic groups, have pooled their energy, time and resourcefulness to provide a roadside park of beauty and enjoyment.

Early efforts saw the residents of Hamlin, led by then mayor Joe E. Ford, raise funds to purchase an abandoned motel building and clear the site. An old drive-in theater, also abandoned and deteriorating, was torn down and the ground leveled.

Members of the Highway Department volunteered to help design the proposed roadside park and plans have been made for shrubbery and trees to be donated.

Dirt work at the park site also included cleaning the creek nearby of debris and altering its course.

A cactus garden now circles the area and work is well underway for a huge Pied Piper under the arch from the motel that was left standing. The Pied Piper, mascot of Hamlin's athletic teams, is being constructed by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Norton and Mrs. C. L. Howard with the help of many others.

PIED PIPER TAKES FORM—Rev. and Mrs. Joe Norton, left, and Mark Fowler continue to work on the huge Pied Piper under the arch at the proposed roadside park, Hamlin's Bicentennial project in the horizons division. The arch was left standing when the abandoned motel building was cleared from the property purchased for the city's Bicentennial project. Donations and volunteer work are making the park project at the south entry a reality.

The cactus garden under the guidance of Mrs. C. Weldon Griggs has been a project of the Xi Gamma Pi sorority chapter. Members of the Hamlin Future Farmers of America and their advisor Milburn Wink have assisted by transplanting specimens for the garden.

Early work on the Piper project was a slab prepared by Buford Bigham.

After plans for the figure were made by Mrs. Norton, the armature was welded by Young Bill Maddox and Charles Ledbetter, using welding facilities volunteered by Tony Byrd.

After the skeleton of the Piper was finished, the shape of the figure had to be formed with plaster lath. The Nortons and Mrs. Howard spent many hours shaping the mesh which is being covered with cement and epoxy mixture before it is painted. Waterproofing will come later by Will Ribera, contractor, who has volunteered his services.

Monday and Tuesday Mark Fowler, L. J. Lee, Mrs. Howard, Rev. and Mrs. Marshall Stewart and Jack

Polk of Austin, and others assisted in plastering the form.

Mrs. Norton, who volunteered at the beginning to construct the Piper, said many people have been active in the work.

Present Mayor Robert Fowler and Mrs. Fowler, Hamlin's Bicentennial general chairman, have provided aid in securing materials and assistance.

Many who have not been active in the work at the park have donated money toward it, Joe Ford mentioned.

Mrs. Robert Goodgame, local artist, drew a picture of the proposed park. Others who have helped are Freddie Franklin, Bill Moore, Sharon Hudgins and Mrs. Richard Young Sr.

A lot of work is still to be done and several organizations have volunteered their services. A lot more people will need to be involved to see the project to completion. Plans call for park benches and tables in the future.

Have You Done YOUR Part In Helping Make YOUR Cemetery Into A Perpetual Care Cemetery?

The Association completely reorganized last November and under the direction of new Officers and Trustees is working hard to accomplish new things for the old and new part. Many people and organizations have given hours of their time and money to help clean and beautify.

Two work days accomplished much needed work. The old trees were cleared, shrubs pruned so that cars could drive through all the streets, new streets made, grass fertilized, new shrubs set out and a Babyland established.

It is impossible for the trustees to contact everyone. If you have not been contacted would you please see or call one of the trustees. They will be glad to answer any question you might have. This project is not designed just for today, but is something that is lasting for the future. Many people or families are members of the $1,000 Club. This is greatly appreciated because your $1,000 will make $75.00 in interest each year. Only this interest can be spent to hire a caretaker. One who will work full time to really keep it nice and clean. The trustees are striving for $150,000.00 to be invested. It will take this much to really be successful.

If you cannot invest $1,000 in this fine community project please feel free to give whatever amount you can — by the week, month or year. Remember, this can be a tax deductible item for you. Any amount is greatly appreciated. The quicker the goal is reached the better job can be done.

This project is YOUR project. Will you do YOUR part Now? If you do not own your lot your purchase now will help so much. Many fine locations are available for you to choose from.

the gospel truth

by Bro. Marshall Townsley

"I exhort therefore, that, FIRST OF ALL, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men; for kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;" I Tim. 2:1-3.

With our nation approaching its two-hundredth birthday, I feel the guidance of the Holy Spirit to minister to you concerning these priceless scriptures.

It seems that in the past years, there has been a growing malicious attitude toward our presidents and local government officials. Of course, I realize this has always been present in different degrees, but the adversary, Satan, has been making himself known more openly as his day draws even closer. This malicious attack from the mouths of people (including those who I am ashamed to call my brothers and sisters in Christ) is working doubt, unbelief, strivings, and lack of stability in our government. The sin in our government is a direct result of the evil you speak about them everyday. It is not the ministry of the Christian to condemn man, but to forgive and reconcile man back to God. II Cor. 5:18

Just remember you haven't been such a HOT ROD all your life either. Stop throwing rocks!

The word of God says that before you do anything else you are to PRAY for the government and all those in authority instead of criticizing and condemning their errors.

God said pray for them that WE might live a quiet and peaceable life in all GODLINESS and HONESTY. The very reason we have those in government that we do is because of those that voted or didn't vote. The reason they act the way they do is because of a prayer failure. It is a startling statistic that there are enough professing evangelical Christians to put in office any man they so desire! wagon" b

Stop joining the "doom wagon" and join with the many believing Christians who pray daily for our officials and nation.

It's not his fault he is in office, it's yours. Please, this election year consider the voice of the Holy Spirit in your decision of voting.

This is the greatest nation on the face of this earth; Chosen of God to cradle and to spread the gospel-not religion-the Gospel. Stop friend, please stop criticizing her and begin to pray diligently.

There will be no meeting Sunday, July 4, however, we do invite everyone to come and pray with us on Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. at 1150 So. Central.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FIFTY YEARS AGO
(July 2, 1926)

This week might be termed Moody week in this part of the state. He came to Haskell County Wednesday and to Stamford Wednesday night. It being night and very favorable weather, a large crowd went from all the surrounding country to hear the young Attorney General set forth his claims for Governor of Texas.

The speaker held the closest attention of his audience. He never at any time mentioned the name of Lynch Davidson, not even hinted that such a man was in the race. But the most of his time was given to the record of James E. Ferguson, and the reasons that a change of administration should be made. During the discourse, there was frequent applause but not a bit of rowdyism. Moody impressed his hearers as one dealing straight, without any desire to mislead. Many of the staunch admirers of the other candidates appreciated his method of handling his language concerning those whom he would displace.

Evidently Monday will be a holiday in Hamlin. The names of firms signing to close are indicated below. It's a "day off", take it, be careful, have a good time. Note that the following will be closed:

The automobile of 50 years from now probably will be an enclosed car, of extremely light weight, probably under 1,000 pounds, and will run about 100 miles on a gallon of gasoline, according to Charles F. Kettering, director of the General Motors research laboratory.

"It all depends on the progress we are able to make in developing a more efficient fuel for our automobile engines," says Mr. Kettering, "but we hope to increase the efficiency of our engines and liberate enough of the energy that we can drive a car 100 miles on one gallon of fuel."

"There's sufficient energy in a gallon of gasoline to carry a light car from St. Louis to Detroit, a distance of 450 miles, but the average light car is making only about 15 miles on that gallon.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(July 5, 1956)

New officers for the club year beginning July 1 were installed when the Hamlin Rotary Club met Wednesday at noon at the oil mill guest house in regular weekly luncheon session.

The following officers were installed by retiring president J. E. (Pat) Patterson: Manny Johnson, president; J. E. Patterson vice president; John Howard Jr., secretary-treasurer; Weldon Johnson, Gene Prewit, Curtis Dodd and Cecil Sellers, directors.

Practically all business houses in Hamlin will be closed Wednesday for the celebration of the Fourth of July, it is revealed by a check-up of firms by The Herald as it prepared to print this week's edition of Your Home Paper.

Stamford's Cowboy Reunion is scheduled to attract scores of people of the Hamlin section. The annual cowboy attraction opened Monday and was to be concluded with performances Wednesday night.

Values of oil properties in the Hamlin Consolidated Independent School District have decreased by $1,300,000, it was announced this week by the board of equalization of the school district, when the group met with tax representatives of the oil companies and with Pritchard & Abbot, tax consultants, to calculate the oil values in the district.

The decline in the taxable valuations will mean a loss in revenue to the school of some $16,000 for 1956-57.

"A loss in revenue in our schools means that some of the extra services we have had in the past will have to be reduced, declared

Superintendent C. F. Cook. Costs such as salaries, maintenance, fuel, transportation, water, lights, and school supplies, he said, cannot be reduced.

TEN YEARS AGO

MOVE in the RIGHT DIRECTION

To attend Church is the first step in finding God.
To attend regularly is to continue in the right direction, and gives one an opportunity to understand God's will in his life. Now is the time to make your move. Choose the way that will lead you to God.

Attend Church

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

County Residents Have Over $3,600,000 In Savings

(Special to the Herald)
NEW YORK, Because residents of Jones County accumulated a record amount of savings in the past year they are in better financial shape now than they have been for some time. They salted away a greater proportion of their income than normally, putting much of it into savings banks, savings and loan accounts, U. S. savings bonds and the like. A considerable part of their unspent cash went, also toward reducing their outstanding consumer debt, thus improving their financial stability still more. The amount of new money that the Jones County population stowed away during the year in the various types of savings came to an estimated $3,612,000. The finding is based upon national data gathered by the Federal Reserve Board, the Conference Board and others and upon income and spending figures for each area of the country. The reports show that, for the United States as a whole, personal savings during the past year amounted to nearly $91 billion, or about 8.3 percent of disposable income after taxes. This compares with $74 billion the year before, when the rate of saving was 7.5 percent. The large nest egg of savings in the hands of local families represents a treasure trove of additional spending power. When their confidence in the stability of the present economic recovery returns and they decide the time is right, this pent-up money could spark a big buying surge. Just how much a family saves or can save depends upon its income, its needs and the amount it has left after taking care of the essentials. Those with very small incomes find it difficult to save anything. Families with $7,500 left after taxes have been putting away about 3.5 percent, on average, those with $12,000 net, 7.4 percent, and those with $15,000, close to 8.6 percent. In Jones County, in line with the general findings the amount saved came to an estimated $620 per family, based on average earnings in the local area in the past year.

LIVING'S GREAT AT 78 (68 in the winter)

Energy conservation pays its greatest dividends when directed at heating or cooling your home. For every degree you set your thermostat above 72 degrees in the summer you can save, on the average, about 5 percent on your total bill. And for winter heating, every degree above 68 degrees adds about 3 percent.

Midwest Electric Cooperative reminds you that you can save money by the wise use of all appliances, but heating and cooling represent your biggest savings potential.

Philosopher Tries Hard to Figure Out How To Help Improve Congress, But Doesn't

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One tackles a problem this week he can't seem to handle.

Dear editor:

People have been asking, What's gone wrong with Congress? All those scandals and that sort of stuff, why it's gotten so that if you open your newspaper and don't find a new one splashed over the front page you're disappointed.

I've been thinking about this. Now it's possible that some Congressmen need revising, but above that I've figured is the need to revise Congress itself. It's too shielded from the people.

Look at it this way. Say you have a farm anywhere from 500 to 2000 miles away and you send some hands, ordinary people like the rest of us, up there to work it for you, never get up there to check on it yourself, and depend on reports the hands send back on how well the farm is doing. You reckon it'd be a very good investment? Reckon before long it wouldn't get weedy?

That's the way we operate Congress. We send a hungry, lanky young man up there, pay him $42,000 a year with lots of fringe benefits, give him about $400,000 a year to hire a staff to do most of the work, and before you know it he's eating too much, getting fat and contented, and making holding on to such a job his main ambition in life. Why not? The hours are good, you don't have to show up for work if you don't want to, you get your picture in the paper, you get interviewed when you fly back to your home district at your employers' expense, and if you stay there long enough—that's the only requirement—you can become chairman of a committee and wield all sorts of power, like telling other Congressmen where they can park their cars.

That's an odd way to run a business. I've been trying to figure out a way to run Congress by a nation-wide television hookup, with each congressman, after he's gone to Washington to get sworn in, staying at home in his own district where his employers can keep an eye on him. Instead of voting by punching a button from your desk in Congress, buy more wire and put the button back home in your own district.

I'm not sure this'll work. On the other hand, you've got to admit that these sex scandals coming out of Washington lately ought to at least put a stop to all this talk about our having a do-nothing, impotent Congress. Yours faithfully, J.A.

OVER HOLIDAYS—

42 Predicted to Die On Texas Highways

AUSTIN—The director of the Texas Department of Public Safety said today indications are that some 42 persons will be killed in Texas traffic accidents during the Fourth of July weekend, and called upon Texas drivers to "prove our estimate is too high."

Colonel Wilson E. Speir said his department expects "unusually heavy traffic" throughout the state, especially around recreational areas and where Bicentennial celebrations are scheduled. He said the estimate covers a 78-hour period which starts at 6 p.m. Friday and continues until midnight Monday, July 5th.

During a comparable period last year, the department estimated that 54 persons would be killed during the holiday period. At the conclusion of the July 4th holiday last year, statewide statistics indicated 44 lives lost and rose to 49 with late reports.

In a concerted effort to keep deaths down, the DPS and local law enforcement agencies will be cooperating in an all-out effort to make the streets and highways as safe as possible. All available DPS troopers will be on duty, Speir indicated, and they will be especially watchful for drinking drivers, speeders and persons driving in a reckless manner.

In addition, the DPS will be working with the news media in a special public education program termed "Operation Motorcade" which focuses public attention on where and why fatal accidents are occurring during the holiday period.

A word of explanation about the Pineapple Sheet Cake recipe last week. The recipe was correct—it does not have any shortening. Several of Wanza Baker's recipes are being printed this week, more of the ones she got from relatives in Kansas.

HOT BROCCOLI DIP
Wanza Baker
2 pkg. chopped frozen broccoli
1 large onion, chopped
4 T. butter
2 rolls Kraft garlic cheese
1 can chopped mushrooms
1 can cream of mushroom soup
Red Pepper and salt to taste.
Cook and drain broccoli, saute onion and mushrooms in butter, placing in double boiler. Add cheese and soup. Serve hot.

MEAT BALLS
Wanza Baker
2 lbs. lean ground beef
1 pkg. onion soup mix (dry)
Salt and pepper
Make tiny balls of meat and put in heavy cooker. Pour onion soup mix over top. Cover and cook slowly until done. Stir if needed. May be cooked in oven 1½ hours at 300 degrees. Serve hot on toothpick with crackers.

9 DAY SLAW
Wanza Baker
Head cabbage, shredded
Green pepper, chopped or sliced thin
Onion, grated
Celery Seed
Bring to a boil the following:
½ c. vinegar
½ c. sugar
½ c. oil
Pour over slaw while warm.

This quickie recipe from Mrs. L. B. Maberry may be just the thing for taking on vacation trips.

UNBELIEVABLE PEANUT BUTTER COOKIES
Mrs. L. B. Maberry
1 c. peanut butter
1 c. white sugar
1 egg

Mix by hand and drop by teaspoons on dry cookie sheet. Bake at 325 degrees 10-12 minutes.

There is no flour in recipe and do not use mixer. Chunky peanut butter may be used.

Dilled Green Beans Can Offer Variety

Dilled green beans offer variety to the usual methods of canning and freezing—and add a treat to family meals, Nacey Wilburn, County Extension Agent, suggests.

The recipe for dilled green beans, and many other tasty pickles and relishes, is found in B-188 "Pickles and Relishes," a bulletin which is available for 25 cents from the Department of Agricultural Communications, Texas A&M University, College Station, 77843 or by obtaining an order form from your local county Extension agent.

"Dilled green beans are easy to prepare and may be served at a summer picnic or other family gathering. Or stash them away for Christmas gifts," she suggested.

Dilled Green Beans
3 lbs. green beans, about 3 quarts
6 cups. vinegar
2 cups water
6 very small hot red peppers
1 cup salt
6 bunches dill
6 small cloves of garlic
Wash beans and remove stem end. Heat vinegar, water and salt to boiling. Place a piece of dill, pod of pepper and clove of garlic in each jar. Pack beans in jars to within one inch of top. Pour boiling liquid over the beans. Close. Process in boiling water bath 20 minutes. Start to count processing time as soon as hot jars are placed into the actively boiling water. Store at least three weeks before using.

Use Care In Canning Low-Acid Tomatoes

Tomatoes generally have a high acid content and therefore are a natural for canning.

However, certain factors can lower the acidity of these vegetables, and this calls for an additional step in canning.

"Over-maturity is one of the key factors that reduces the acid content of tomatoes," points out Nacey Wilburn, County Extension Agent. "This loss of acidity occurs both on and off the vine. Soft, water-soaked tomatoes should not be canned since the end product will be unsatisfactory and the risk of food poisoning is high."

Excessive rainfall combined with high temperatures can steam tomatoes, causing them to become water-soaked and to lose their acidity, explains the agent.

"Certain varieties of tomatoes are less acid although information is still lacking on this factor," notes Mrs. Wilburn. "The Golden Varieties have a tendency to be lower in acidity than most other varieties, but there is no real proof that they fall into the low-acid class. The varieties Patio and Beefsteak have also been considered by some to be lower in acidity."

If the housewife happens to have a supply of low-acid tomatoes to can, what steps should be taken to do this safely?

"The best precaution in canning low-acid tomatoes is to add ¼ teaspoon of citric acid per pint," advises the agent. "Although this lowers the acidity of the tomatoes to protect them from food poisoning bacteria, it will not improve the quality of the tomatoes. Therefore, it's important that only fresh-picked, firm tomatoes be canned."

The main thing about canning tomatoes is to maintain the acid level below a pH of 4.6 to keep the spores of Clostridium botulinum, the most potent of all food poisoning bacteria, from germinating. A simple boiling water bath which is

When utilities get squeezed too hard the local economy feels the pinch.

Right now, Lone Star, like all Texas gas companies, is caught in a squeeze. The average cost of the gas we buy from over 500 suppliers has skyrocketed. Yet we're meeting some strong resistance to recovering these costs from our customers.

Today, most cost recovery has to come through the gas cost adjustment. But, even with this pass-through, we have been forced to initially absorb 15% of every price rise. This is a serious loss that must eventually be recovered.

So ask yourself: what will happen if Lone Star is unable to recover its costs?

The answer: we won't be able to buy the future supplies of natural gas this area needs. Already Lone Star is unable to add reserves of gas at the same rate it is being used. The thought of running out of reserves is not as far-fetched as you might think.

What will happen if this area runs short of natural gas? First, industry would be affected, since natural gas supplies about 50% of the energy for industry nationally, and even more in this area. With insufficient energy, industry could have to curtail production. Jobs could begin to disappear. Economic growth could slow down, even halt.

What can you do about it? Discuss it with friends, neighbors and business associates. Write to your local officials. Support a fair rate of return for your gas company, to which it is entitled by law.

Think of it as your own problem. Because when you get right down to it, it is.
